

ARCEDC.ORG

The DC Chapter of the American Research Center in Egypt supports scholarship, training, and conservation efforts.

The American Research Center in Egypt's Washington, DC Chapter is pleased to announce our schedule for the 2011/2012 season. Visit www.ARCEDC.org for maps, parking tips & more.

September 16th, 2011

Speaker: Dr. David O'Connor of New York University. Topic: "Mysteries of Abydos: Excavating and Saving the Monuments of Egypt's Earliest Pharaohs."

October 21st, 2011

Speaker: Dr. Jeremy Pope of the College of William and Mary. Topic: "Ancient Nubia, King Taharqo."

November 18th, 2011

Speaker: Dr. Betsy Bryan of Johns Hopkins University. Topic: "The Temple of Mut."

December, 9th, 2011

Speaker: Dr. Peter Lacovara of the Carlos Museum in Atlanta. Topic: "The Late Period."

January, 20th, 2012

Speaker: Dr. Ann Russman. Topic: "Coptic Civilization."

February 17th, 2012

Speaker: Dr. Leslie Ann Warden, West Virginia University Institute of Technology.
Topic: "Egyptian Administration During the Old Kingdom."

March 17th, 2012

SATURDAY AT THE WALTERS MUSEUM IN BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.
Diverse group of speakers and presenters.

April 20th, 2012

Speaker: Dr. Gayle Gibson of the University of Toronto. Topic: "Well-Known Non-Royals."

April 21st, 2012

Annual Workshop (Site to be announced). Speaker: Dr. Gayle Gibson of the University of Toronto. Topic: "An In-Depth Look at Well-Known Non-Royals."

May 18th, 2012

Speaker: Dr. Steve Vinson, Indiana University, Bloomington. Topic: "The 19th and 20 Century BC."

June 15th, 2012

Speaker: Dr. Otto Schaden, University of Mississippi. Topic: "KV 63."